Welcome

Hello and a very warm welcome to you all, to this our 65th pantomime – Cinderella.

I have to say a huge thank you to you, our audience, for your continued support. Without you there would be no pantomime. As usual you can expect a traditional family show with lots of good old fashioned humour, slapstick, dancing and, of course, audience participation!!!

This has been a particularly hard year for us as we have had to make over 300 new costumes for this production of Cinderella, which would not have been possible without some very special people. There is a great team spirit within The Signpost Club but some people deserve a special mention:

Firstly, Jane Bonnick and Jill Farrow – these two ladies have worked continuously since August to make a lot of the costumes you will see tonight and without their fantastic contribution we would not have been ready on time. So to them I would like to give my personal thanks.

Also to Ally, Ellie, Emma, Maria and Sonia who have been sewing every weekend from start to finish – thank you.

To all the Signpost girls who have helped when they can.

To Laura, Rachel and Sarah – three of our ‘mums’ who have done a lot for us.

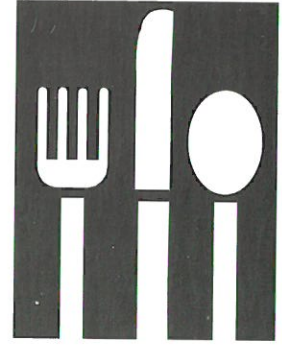

To Mike Morrell and Paul Trout for making the fantastic pumpkin and to Mike Parker and all his team for all the other fantastic scenery that they have made.

And last but not least.....

To Georgia Harcombe and Abi Parker, two very young members (in fact they are only ten years old and belong to Signpost Kids). These two young ladies have not only helped to sew but have also made us countless cups of tea and coffee to keep us going. They really have worked above and beyond the call of duty and I for one think they are both fantastic.

So all that remains for me to say is, “sit back and relax and let’s see if Cinderella really shall go to the ball.....”
