Welcome

Hello Boys and Girls!!!!!!

I say boys and girls, as you know when you enter the realms of pantomime we all revert to children again – a couple of hours when we can forget the real world and return to a happy carefree time, which is what pantomime is all about.

Within this Fairy Tale there will be time to cheer as our Heroine progresses through our story, time to laugh and time to cry and what pantomime would be complete without an evil character to boo and hiss at.

Lots of colourful costumes and wonderful dancing from our fabulous chorus girls and of course men dressed as women and women dressed as men. How will we ever explain British Pantomime to the rest of the world?

Of course none of this would be possible without some very special people who help to make our dream a reality – these are Mike Morrell our writer and director, Sue Arthurs, our quite amazing seamstress among her many other talents and Raymond Trout our great Stage Manager – without the commitment and dedication of these people we would not have the show tonight.

I also have to thank Jack Farrow, who has been responsible for making some of our wonderful stage pieces and a special thanks to my wonderful “girls” who have all learned to sew this year in helping to make the 300+ costumes needed for tonight’s production.

Our great cast who have put in hours of time through rehearsal, to all our brilliant technicians without whose expertise we would not have a show, all of you are a great group of people – definitely slightly mad, but I think that goes with the territory!!!

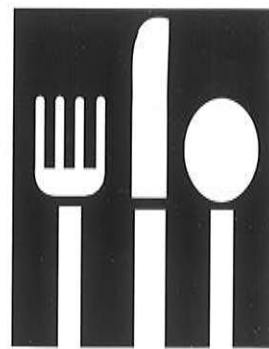

Lastly but certainly not least – to you – our wonderful audiences who come and support us year after year – without you we would be nothing so a heartfelt thank you to you all.

So let’s begin.....and join the world of a beautiful girl, her wicked stepmother and not one but seven little heroes ! ! ! ! ! ! !

The curtain goes up as we begin the Magical Fairy Tale that is Snow White.

Carole Spurway
Chairman, Tiverton Signpost Club.
