Welcome

This is a very special year for us, as with this our production for 2005 "Aladdin", we are celebrating our 60th Annual Pantomime.

There are two fundamental reasons why we have lasted so long –

Firstly our members – without a strong membership no organisation or club can survive. This has been put to the test this year with us having to "up sticks" in the middle of rehearsals and move premises as the Market Conversion was brought forward from February to November. Unlike Aladdin – we didn't have a magic lamp and a genie to help us move, but with sheer determination and hard work we moved out of the market and 48 hours later we were rehearsing in the Old Bingo Hall, set up with all the facilities we needed, thanks to the sheer gut and determination of all those involved in the move.

As with all amateur clubs there will always be some people who give 110% throughout the year and it is this core of people who give their all, all of the time, that should be cherished and encouraged as at the end of the day it is these people that keep the club going.

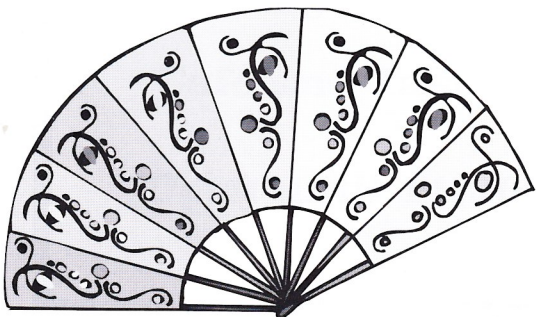

It is because of people like this that the Signpost Club survives and continues to grow stronger with each passing year. These members believe in the Signpost Club and want to see it continue to grow. This has certainly borne fruit, with us having our Junior Club – "Signpost Kids" whose own show "Gotta Sing Gotta Dance" was a sell out in August last year and currently has a membership of 90 plus.

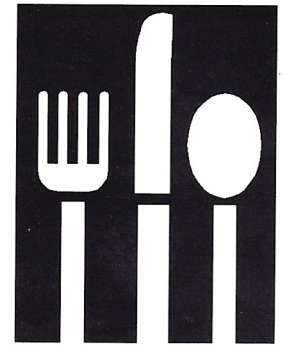

Secondly – you, our audiences – without your continued support and appreciation there would not be a pantomime. To all of you, I say a heartfelt THANKYOU – and so I return to where I began, our 60th production and if proof were ever needed that the club is continuing to grow – in our chorus line this year is the granddaughter of one of our "girls" who was in the chorus line 60 years ago.

This gives me confidence and hope that the club will survive through the next 60 years and beyond, when our children and grandchildren will be as proud as I am today, to be able to say – I am a member of the Signpost Club.

Thankyou

Carole Spurway
Chairman, Tiverton Signpost Club.
