Welcome

Hello everyone and welcome once again to our Annual Pantomime – our 63rd! Sinbad the Sailor.

This year is no different from any other – with lots of singing, dancing good old fashioned pantomime, jokes and audience participation.

We have twelve new members in our chorus all progressing into the pantomime from the Kids Club. We have again, some new faces taking on the challenge of taking a character part whilst retaining a good sprinkling of old favourites.

Of course all this would not be possible without our production team, some of who work throughout the year to help put the show together.

I have to give special thanks to a couple of people – they are Mike Morrell and Emma Smith. Mike has spent practically every weekend preparing and making the scenery and compiling the music and Emma has spent each weekend since the Summer helping to make and prepare the costumes, even working through part of the weekend at her job and then coming to sew straight from work, without the immense dedication of these two people – we would not have the show we do tonight.

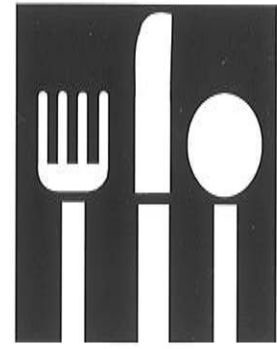

I would also like to mention Emma, Emma, Emma and Kim – affectionately known (by the acronym) EEEK! – who took on the challenge of the choreography, completing the closing dance routine – it really is a case of keeping the best till last – the closing dance completed by the chorus is amazing! Well done girls!!

Finally, I'd like to say a massive thank you to you, our audience, for supporting us once again this year.

So take your seats and join us on our adventures across the Seven Seas with Sinbad the Sailor.
